

PHYSICIAN ASPHYXIATED.

Dr. J. A. Millhouse Found Dead in Columbia Hotel.

Columbia, Oct. 20.—Dr. J. A. Millhouse, of Perry, was found dead in his room at the Imperial Hotel here this morning, and the odor of escaping gas in the room showed death had been caused by asphyxiation. He was found in bed undressed and evidently had been dead some time. His remains were removed to a local undertaking establishment and taken back to his late home at Perry on the midnight train to-night, where the remains will be interred.

Dr. Millhouse reached the city yesterday at noon, and registered at the Imperial Hotel. Before retiring he left a call for 9 o'clock this morning. Along in the night it is said that some men in the room next to Dr. Millhouse heard groans and they notified the office.

Entrance Not Affected.

A bell boy was sent up to the room, but he failed to get any response, and returning obtained a pass key and tried to get in that way, but the door was bolted on the inside and he failed to get in. However, by this time the groans had ceased and the boy left, thinking everything was all right.

This morning the boy was sent up to Dr. Millhouse's room at 9 o'clock to call him as he was instructed. He failed to get any response to his repeated knocks and as the door was locked on the inside and he couldn't get in he went for assistance. This was secured, the transom was forced and the boy entered the room over the transom. The room was filled with the odor of gas and Dr. Millhouse was found in bed, undressed and dead.

The theory is that Dr. Millhouse in turning off the electric light left a gas jet on and the mistake was made in this way. It is supposed that he must have been suffering from indigestion and that this was the cause of the groans heard in the night.

Body Taken Home.

The body was taken in charge by a local undertaking establishment. Adjt. Gen. Moore, who was a friend of the dead man, lent what assistance he could, and the people at Perry being notified, D. J. D. Doderhoff and others wired from there that they would be up on the first train and to have the remains prepared for shipment back to Perry. This was done and Dr. Doderhoff and friends arrived on the first train and took the body back to Perry to-night.

Dr. Millhouse was about 56 years of age and a prominent physician of Perry, and came from one of the most prominent families in the State. His wife, who was a Miss Salley, survives him with several children.

DIVIDE REV. WOLFE'S ESTATE.

Spartanburg Minister Disappeared from Home Thirteen Years Ago.

Spartanburg, Oct. 11.—Suit has been brought in the courts of this county to have Rev. W. P. Wolfe, a minister, who disappeared from Spartanburg thirteen years ago, adjudged dead in the eyes of the law, that his estate may be divided among his children, whom he left, and who have not heard of their father since the day of his departure from home, saying he was going to Asheville.

When he left he owned three lots and two buildings at the corner of Wofford and Wolfe streets, the latter named in honor of the departed minister. From the day Mr. Wofford left Spartanburg until now no word has come to his family, either directly or indirectly from the man. He has been completely swallowed up by the earth. The five children heirs want to divide the property and settle the estate.

BLEASE PAROLES BARBER.

Gets His Liberty on Condition He Leaves the State.

Chas. H. Barber, a young white man of prominence of Spartanburg, who was convicted of fraudulent breach of trust and sentenced to two years on the public works of Spartanburg county, was Wednesday paroled by Gov. Blease on the condition that he leave the State and never return. Young Barber, who comes of a prominent South Carolina family and whose father is an aged Methodist minister, was in the brokerage business in Spartanburg at the time the alleged fraudulent breach of trust took place. His wife comes from a prominent family of Georgia.

The Home Merchant.

The home merchant is the man who gives you credit when you have no cash to buy the necessities of life. The home merchant is the man who helps you to pay the taxes that run your schools and pave your streets. The home merchant is the man to whom you appeal in times of distress for favors. Then why should you ignore him when you desire to make a purchase? He sells as good goods at as low figures as the man who does business in the big city. The hills look green far away.
